Overnight Information

We will be spending the night at Camp Lebanon in Oregonia, just outside of Dayton, Ohio. This is a more affordable option for us as a band program when traveling and we have been sleeping at venues like this for almost 10 years!

Students should bring the following items. Anything you bring is your responsibility.

- Performance: Uniforms, undergarments, hair & make-up accessories
- Attire: For our safety, specific shirts should be worn each day when not in uniform. Cheshire 2023, winter show shirt, journey shirt, any WJHS shirt, and a cute outfit for our lunch on Saturday/Finals. The sparkly West J Guard jacket
- Spectating: Clear Bag Policy in all arenas.
- Sleep: Sleeping bag/sheets/blankets (Single bed linens), pillow(s)
- Hygiene: Towels, toiletries, pajamas & day clothes (must follow JCPS dress code)
- Snacks/Drinks: must be in resealable containers and all trash must end up in a trash bag/can
- Music: since we'll be in a van and not on the bus, speakers are not allowed. Use headphones for this trip. Depending on the van rental, a DJ may be appointed by the driver.
- Portable DVD players are allowed, but must be PG-13, used with headphones, and approved by a staff member or chaperone
- Money/Meals: Meals with Chef Leighton are included in this trip, as well as our trip to the Spaghetti Warehouse. All other meals, pit-stops, and merchandise will be paid for out-of-pocket.

Students are expected to follow all rules and expectations of JCPS and the WJHS Bands & Ensembles. Students must be respectful of all times as representatives of not just WJHS, but JCPS, and North Carolina. You must always travel with a Two. You cannot ever walk alone.

Camp Expectations:

- Only go into the room that you are assigned.
- While in your room, halls, and common areas, talk at a reasonable level (no yelling).
- Be respectful of other camp guests.
- Do not jump on the beds or break anything in the rooms.
- Clean up after yourself - yo mama ain't here (even if she is).
